

NORTH CAROLINA TERM LIMITS POLL: EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

US Term Limits survey conducted Nov. 12-13, 2024 by RMG Research Group.
505 Registered Voters in NC participated in the survey.

A large majority (79%) of North Carolina voters favor an amendment imposing term limits on Congress. 77% of voters also say that they would approve of having North Carolina call for an amendment proposing convention to enact congressional terms limits. Additionally, 69% of voters state that they would be more likely to vote for a candidate for the State Legislature who supports implementing term limits for members of Congress.

Do you approve or disapprove of placing term limits on members of Congress?

The U.S. Constitution authorizes state legislatures to call for a convention to recommend Constitutional amendments. Two-thirds of states would have to agree before any action could be taken. Would you favor or oppose having North Carolina call for an amendment proposing convention to enact congressional terms limits?

At present the North Carolina state legislature does NOT have term limits on itself. If your state legislator voted to place term limits on Congress through an amendment proposing convention, would that make you more likely or less likely to vote for your state legislator?
